

The 18th Annual Garden State Film Festival running from March 25–29, 2020 in Asbury Park will present over 200 of the best current independent films from around the globe along with professional workshops, educational panels, open talent casting calls and more. All films showcase a truly unique mix of culture, art and genres.

20,000 Garden State Film Festival Program magazines will be distributed throughout the weekend, providing your business direct marketing access to attendees of one of the largest events on the Jersey Shore this year.
