The 21st Annual Garden State Film Festival running from March 23–26, 2023 in Asbury Park, NJ will present over 200 of the best current independent films from around the globe along with professional workshops, educational panels, open talent casting calls and more. All films showcase a truly unique mix of culture, art and genres.

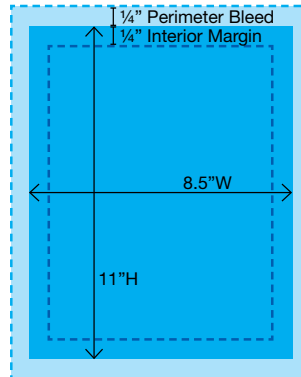

The Garden State Film Festival Program magazines will be distributed throughout the weekend, in print as well as virtually, providing your business direct marketing access to attendees of one of the largest events on the Jersey Shore this year.
