In Loving Memory

Welcome to the 18th Annual Garden State Film Festival

ON WITH THE SHOW!

The 2020 edition, now launching via live stream, will deliver a four-day online program stocked with over 240 films, for accredited ticket buyers to view virtually within the wake of coronavirus considerations.

Although impacted by the coronavirus pandemic, which has forced cancellation of the Garden State Film Festival's annual event, we believe the opportunity to venture into a new digital frontier can serve as a blueprint for festivals worldwide and we look forward to bringing global film fans GSFF 2020 through online and virtual exposures. It promises to be a celebration of independent film that you can't see anywhere else, all from the comfort of your home. Our top priority remains with the health and well-being of all those involved in this global event.

GSFF will be honoring official GSFF 2020 screening tickets in 2021, but will not include the black-tie awards dinner.

We gratefully thank all of our sponsors without whom, we could not exist. Special shout out to our presenting sponsor, The Journal along with our army of steadfast volunteers, Kristen Dirato and her crew, Board of Directors, supporters and legions of fans, along with Brookdale Community College, home of our new office. Their energy and dedication to the Garden State Film Festival is immeasurable and mind blowing!

This world-renowned event provides a platform for creativity and passion. I am intensely proud to play a role in this with you.

Leave your cares behind. Open your mind and enjoy what you are about to experience.

CELEBRATING THE GARDEN STATE FILM FESTIVAL: ONE OF NEW JERSEY'S GREAT EXPERIENCES!

2020 Garden State Film Festival Honorees

Honorary Chair | Jack Ford

Two-time Emmy Award winner and Peabody Award-winning journalist, college professor, award-winning documentary film producer and former trial attorney and author Jack Ford has been commanding the spotlight for a lifetime. Ford enjoyed childhood in Point Pleasant and attended Yale University, where he was a three-year varsity football starter. He continued his education at the Fordham University School of Law, which he partially financed from his three winning appearances on "Jeopardy."

He has a storied career in television journalism and is currently a CBS News correspondent for "60 Minutes Sports" and the co-host of "Metro Focus" on PBS. He has received an American Radio and Television Award, a National Headliner Award, and the March of Dimes FDR Award. Ford was also voted People magazine's "Sexiest News Anchor." Ford is a visiting lecturer at Yale, New York University and the University of Virginia, a philanthropist, and devoted family man.

Icon Award | Linda Hamilton

From the big screen as Sarah Connor in the "Terminator" films to the small screen as Catherine Chandler on TV's "Beauty and the Beast," the beautiful Linda Hamilton inspired a generation of women with her strong femininity and audiences everywhere with her powerful and personal performances. She has won an ACE award and has been nominated for three Golden Globe Awards, an Emmy Award and an MTV Movie Award, among other honors.

She has shared the screen with many iconic partners including Arnold Schwarzenegger and Robert Patrick in the "Terminator" films; Pierce Brosnan in "Dante's Peak," Michael Caine in "Mr. Destiny," and Ron Perlman in "Beauty and the Beast. Hamilton guest starred on "Frasier", made numerous appearances on "Weeds," "Defiance," "Lost Girls" and the NBC series "Chuck." She was also delighted to have and fulfilled a bucket list dream of hosting "Saturday Night Live." Hamilton is a powerful, striking performer, and we are honored to have her as our lcon.

Patriot Award | Robert Patrick

With his can't-forget face, Robert Patrick is more than the legendary T-1000 in "Terminator 2: Judgment Day," he is also devoted to veterans' causes, which has earned him this year's Patriot Award.

His films include "Die Hard 2," "Wayne's World," "Last Action Hero," "Fire in the Sky," "Cop Land," "The Faculty," "Walk the Line," "Bridge to Terabithia," "Spy Kids," "Flags of Our Fathers," "Identity Thief" and "Gangster Squad. He appeared on the television hits including "The Sopranos," "True Blood," "The Outer Limits," "The X-Files," "Sons of Anarchy" and as Agent Cabe Gallow on "Scorpion." He was most recently seen in the 3D re-release of "Terminator 2: Judgment Day" and the dark drama thriller "Last Rampage."

Patrick, the grandson of an WWI, WWII and Korean War Army veteran, is also a lifelong supporter of the military and the United Service Organizations (USO). He regularly visits USO hospitals and has participated in four USO tours. As a longtime motorcycle enthusiast and Boozefighter, Patrick served for years as an Honorary Grand Marshall for the famed Love Ride which benefits veterans. Thank you for your support of veterans!

Lifetime Achievement | Matthew Modine

Whether you know him from his film roles in "The Dark Knight Rises" or Private Joker in "Full Metal Jacket" or from his TV roles on "Stranger Things," "Weeds" and "Proof," or from his compelling performance in "Foster Boys" and "Miss Virginia," screened at this year's festival, Mathew Modine always delivers a strong, centered performance.

New York Times film critic Vincent Canby referred to Modine as "one of the most adaptable film actors of his generation." He has worked with some of most acclaimed directors, including Oliver Stone, Sir Alan Parker, Christopher Nolan, Stanley Kubrick, Robert Altman, Alan J. Pakula, Spike Lee and Jonathan Demme, to name a few.

Modine has been nominated for three Golden Globes and is the winner of one. He also received two Emmy Award nominations and many awards from numerous film festivals. Bravo, Mathew, on your Lifetime Achievement Award!

Home Grown Hero | David Burke

Recognized for his lifetime work of raising the creative profile of New Jersey, artist, entrepreneur, inventor and world-renowned chef David Burke is one of the leading pioneers in American cooking today. His fascination with ingredients and the art of the meal has fueled a 30-year career marked by creativity, critical acclaim and the introduction of revolutionary products and cooking techniques. Among numerous awards, Burke is the only American with the Maillaure Queriere de France Dipleme d'Illenneur and use inducted into lamos Deard Foundation (Whele to win the Meilleurs Ouvriers de France Diplome d'Honneur and was inducted into James Beard Foundation "Who's Who of Food & Beverage in America." He is also a two-time nominee for the foundation's "Best Chef New York." Burke is one of the most recognized chefs on television including appearances on "Top Chef Masters" and "Iron Chef." His Garden State restaurant empire includes the DRIFTHOUSE by David Burke and Nauti Bar by David Burke, Sea Bright; Ventan as, Fort Lee; and David Burke Orange Lawn, South Orange with more in the works for New Jersey! A respected philanthropist and mentor, Burke was also honored at the 2019 Brookdale Community College Scholarship Ball.

Independent Spirit | Tara Wood

Tara Wood is a director, producer and international film sales agent who hails from the Garden State. She is the codirector of the award-winning, New York Times critic's pick "21 Years: Richard Linklater" and the director of "QT8: The First Eight," which we are delighted to present at this year's festival. Also a devoted endangered species activist, Wood served to relocate captive abused tigers and jaguars around the world to safe sanctuaries. Big congrats, Tara!

Beacon Award | Gail Barringer

Montclair, New Jersey's Gail Barringer is an American producer who has been working in the film and television industries since the early 1990s. She is best known for her producing work on projects like "Person of Interest," "Luke Cage" and "Wu-Tang: An American Saga." Her latest venture is the ABC mystery series "Emergence." We are thrilled to honor Gail with the Beacon Award!

Educator of the Year | Robin Kampf

Robin Kampf's has inspired generations of filmmakers. She has served as an adjunct professor, teaching television at Brookdale College, Union County College and Montclair State, Seton Hall and Monmouth Universities. 2020 Garden State Film Festival Honorees

Renaissance Award | Perry Lang

Perry Lang is a producer, writer, actor and award-winning DGA director. He began acting at 17, and has appeared in more than 30 films and 70 hours of television. He has directed more than 80 hours of television including "NYPD Blue," "ER," "Alias," "Weeds" and "NCIS: Los Angeles." Lang's newest feature, the acclaimed and successful "An Interview with God," is now in release by Universal Pictures and on Netflix.

Exceptional Women in Film | Arianna Bocco

Arianna Bocco has spent more than a decade overseeing acquisitions and productions for IFC Films, Sundance Selects and IFC Midnight, three multi-platform film distribution labels owned and operated by AMC Networks, Inc. She has spearheaded all acquisitions at the company, acquiring the rights to some of the most globally critically acclaimed independent films. Revered for her vast experience in acquisitions, production and development, it is our honor to have her with us this year.

Broader Vision Award | Rock And Roll Forever Foundation

The Broader Vision Award for an organization that uses filmmaking for the greater good is proudly presented to The Rock and Roll Forever Foundation established by Steven Van Zandt and the TeachRock initiative. These organizations joined with GSFF, Artists Alike Studios, the New Jersey Motion Picture & Television Commission and The New Jersey School Boards Association to create the Hometown

Documentary Series that showcases New Jersey School Documentary shorts that are written, directed and shot by students. Films must focus on some aspect of their hometown, that profiles an interesting person, place, time period or subject who is related to the arts. We are proud to honor your sterling efforts!

Rising Star | Ashley Platz

Central Jersey's Ashley Platz grew up like all good Jersey girls, going down the shore and eating pork roll, egg and cheese sandwiches, which are hard to come by in Los Angeles where her acting career is taking off. She has appeared on "Grey's Anatomy" on ABC, "GLOW" on Netflix, and she'll soon be appearing on "The Bold Type" on Freeform playing a fun-loving, confident, queer, Jersey girl. Even though her career has her in Los Angeles full time, she comes back to the Garden State often for the pizza, the saltwater taffy and of course the Garden State Film Festival. We extend our sincere congratulations and a hearty Jersey fist pump to our Rising Star, Ashley Platz!

MUP | Nick Falcone

Nick Falcone served as Board Chair of the Garden State Film Festival and on the Programming Committee from 2009 to 2019. He also cast several of the festival's screenplay readings, working with participation by Diane Ladd, Ed Asner and Xander Berkeley among others. Falcone's long association with the arts has included working for the legendary Broadway director/producer Harold Prince and the Broadway and film production company The Producer Circle Co., headed by Oscar winner Martin Richards who produced

"Chicago." Falcone has sung at Carnegie Hall, with the New Jersey State Opera, MidAtlantic Opera and Metro Lyric Opera of New Jersey. He received his Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University School of Law and his bachelor degree in theatre arts from Rutgers University.

Screenplay Competition Winners

Short- "Standing in Water" By Kathleen Caprario-Ulrich

Born and bred in Elizabeth, New Jersey, Kathleen Caprario-Ulrich relocated to the Pacific Northwest where she has established herself as an award-winning visual artist, writer, art educator and occasional stand-up comic. Her humor is rooted in the often painfully funny process of reinventing one's life after a personal, seismic shift. "Standing In Water" is fueled by her own experience of being widowed before the age of 50 and the healing power of laughter.

Feature Length- "The Last of the Burly Girls" By John Pisano-Thomsen

A lifelong theatre-phile, songwriter and creative writing graduate, John Pisano-Thomsen is an awardwinning LGBTQ/feminist screenwriter. He won one of three screenwriting fellowship spots in the 2016 Atlanta Film Festival. Since then, he has written three more successful screenplays and has accumulated hundreds of awards from around the globe. In October 2019, he placed in the top 15 percent, 5 percent and 2 percent of submissions in the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences' Nicholl Fellowship, with "Last of the Burly Girls" placing in the top 149 semifinalists out of 7,302 submissions.

When Alice Guy-Blaché completed her first film in 1896 Paris, she was not only the first female filmmaker, but one of the first directors ever to make a narrative film. This film follows her rise from Gaumont secretary to her appointment as head of production in 1897, and her subsequent illustrious 20-year career in France and in the United States, as the founder of her own studio right here in Ft Lee, NJ. As writer director and/or producer of 1,000 films, she was veritably erased from history... until now. Narrated by Jodie Foster.

Premiere Status: NJ Premiere Youssef Delara/Andrew Sugerman, Peter Samuelson, Anne-Marie Mackay, Jay Paul Deratany Production Company: Reel Red Films Contact: curtisnelsonsmith@gmail.com Michael Trainer (Mathew Modine) is a lawyer at the center of a trial in which a for-profit foster care agency puts a known sex offender into the same foster home as his young client Jamal, with catastrophic results. Michael, successful litigator with a long career protecting corporate interests, wants nothing to do with Jamal's case, until a judge forces him to accept it. Initially he sees Jamal as a kid off the streets looking to grab a piece of corporate profits. But when Jamal refuses to settle the case for any amount of money, Michael begins his representation in earnest. As their work together reveals the horrifying depth of the corrupt and abusive for-profit foster care agency, Michael is transformed from cynical skeptic to fierce warrior in the pursuit of justice.

The founder of Sikhism, was a 15th century teacher, poet and revolutionary activist, whose universal message, the oneness of God, equality for all, women's empowerment, service to others, and devotion to nature and the environment were well ahead of his time. Sikhism is the world's fifth largest religion, yet his story is virtually unknown to Americans and the Western World. Featuring Mayor Ravi Bhalla, the first Sikh mayor in Hoboken, and Grammy-nominee Snatam Kaur. In today's world of stereotypes, nationalism, bullying and misconceptions, Nanak's message is relevant to people of all religions and races.

Based on the awarding-winning book SHOT DOWN: The true story of pilot Howard Snyder and the crew of the B-17 Susan Ruth. After being shot down by German fighters over occupied Belgium on February 8. 1944. Steve's father. Howard, was missing in action for seven months but evaded capture. He was hidden by members of the Belgian Underground for several months and then joined the French Resistance to fight against the Germans. The film is a tribute to Howard, members of the 8th Air Force who fought the air war over Europe during World War II, and to the courageous Belgian patriots who risked their lives to help downed airmen. It also includes Steve's amazing discovery of and resulting friendship with Hans Berger, the German Luftwaffe pilot who shot down the B-17 Susan Ruth, and at the same time, who was shot down by the gunners on Howard's bomber crew.

Billy Mitchell (Devon Bostick, Diary of a Wimpy Kid), a recent college graduate, spends the summer working at an old world mental institution run by his psychiatrist father (Tate Donovan, Argo). Billy falls in love with Virginia (Natalia Dyer, Velvet Buzzsaw, Stranger Things), a patient who is possibly crazy, or perhaps she is the only sane person Billy has in his world. Billy's best friend Nigel (Marchant Davis) becomes involved with a radical civil rights terrorism movement against Tuscaloosa's power elite, which includes Billy's father. Billy is torn between Nigel, his father and his cronies, and Virginia who is planning her escape with or without Billy.
